

Subiaco Museum

Subiaco Museum is a local history museum located between the Subiaco Library and the City of Subiaco Administration Centre on Rokeby Road. Visitors are invited to view rotating exhibitions that showcase the museum's diverse collection between 1pm and 4pm, Tuesday through Friday and 12pm to 4pm on Saturday.

Please note that the museum will be closed for restoration works between June and December 2016. For more information visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/museum

Photographs (inside pages)

1. King Edward Memorial Hospital entrance, c 1990.
2. Nurse Lloyd's Maternity Home, June 1915.
3. Public art in the Hay Street underpass, 2014.
4. Inside the Regal Theatre, date unknown.
5. Houses on Smyth Road, West Subiaco, c 1915.
6. Mueller Park, 1998.

All historic photographs in this publication were sourced from the Subiaco Museum's photographic collection. To find out more about this collection, contact the Subiaco Museum.

See Subi on Sunday is a voluntary community initiative supported by the City of Subiaco.

For further information, contact the Subiaco Museum on 9237 9227 or visit the City of Subiaco website www.subiaco.wa.gov.au

The City of Subiaco is committed to protecting the global environment through local action. This brochure is printed using vegetable based inks on Australian made 100 per cent recycled paper.

This flyer is available electronically on the city's website, and can be provided in alternative formats upon request.

See Subi on Sunday

Regal Theatre, c 1950.

2016–2017 free guided walks exploring the history and environment of Subiaco

See Subi on Sunday offers the community free guided walks through Subiaco that allow participants to enjoy its history, heritage and beauty.

The intention of the walks is to encourage participation and pleasure.

The walks take approximately one and a half hours to complete and are suitable for people of all ages. Walks are conducted in a relaxed, friendly and informative manner.

Community members with past and present connections to the areas visited are invited to provide personal anecdotes that enhance the appreciation of the location explored during each walk.

Subiaco Timber Yard, 1900.

See Subi on Sunday 2016–2017

1

Fifteenth anniversary walk – Celebrate the centenary Sunday 10 July 2016
at 1.30pm

King Edward Memorial

Hospital is turning 100 this year! Join us to learn more about the importance of the hospital in Western Australian history and enjoy an ANZAC biscuit and billy tea at the completion of the walk.

Start and finish on the grassed area outside the Subiaco Museum, 239 Rokeby Road, Subiaco.

2

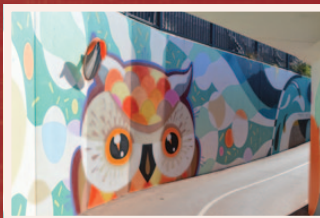

Homes not hospitals
Sunday 11
September 2016
at 1.30pm

Prior to 1945, childbirth was traditionally considered a domestic affair. Discover Subiaco's history of purpose-built maternity homes and learn about their significance to women's history in Western Australia.

Start and finish on the corner of Bagot and Hensman roads, Subiaco.

3

Art for all
Sunday 13
November 2016 at 1.30pm

Subiaco has a diverse range of vibrant and thought-provoking public artwork. Discover some of the popular and lesser known public artworks in the city and consider the role they play in creating a sense of community.

Start and finish outside the Medicare offices in Subiaco Village, Hay Street, Subiaco.

4

Rejoice in the Regal
Sunday 8 January
2017
at 1.30pm

The Regal Theatre is held in trust for the people of Western Australia. Join us to delight in the new look of the 'Grande Dame of Subiaco' after recent refurbishments and learn about her vibrant and interesting history.

Start and finish at Market Square on Roberts Road opposite Axon Street.

5

West Subiaco workers
Sunday 12 March
2017 at 1.30pm

West Subiaco (today known as Shenton Park) has a colourful and important history. Explore the locality and learn about significant developments that have occurred since George Shenton purchased land the area in the late 1800s, including the establishment of the railway line and its significance to workers.

Start and finish at the corner of Lake Street and Herbert Road, Shenton Park.

6

Mother's Day at Mueller Park
Sunday 14 May
2017 at 1.30pm

Mueller Park has been an important area in Subiaco's history since the 19th century gold rush. Celebrate Mother's Day as you explore this part of the city, and enjoy afternoon tea while appreciating the park's modern facilities.

Start and finish at the corner of Coghlan and Roberts roads, Subiaco.