City of Subiaco parks and reserves directory

The parks and reserves directory provides a brief overview of the amenities, facilities and uses for each of the parks within the city. This information assists with park bookings and with general use of our parks and reserves.

There are thirty-five parks in the City of Subiaco, categorised as:

- District parks
- Neighbourhood parks
- Local parks

District parks

District parks are generally larger in size and are suitable for small and large functions. District parks offer a range of amenities including playgrounds and BBQs. District parks often attract people from outside the City of Subiaco.

Neighbourhood parks

Neighbourhood parks contain facilities such as smaller playgrounds and attract people from the surrounding area. Neighbourhood parks do not have toilet facilities.

Local parks

Local parks are small and scattered throughout the city. Many include play equipment and are designed to meet the immediate needs of local residents.

Locating the city's parks

All of the city's parks and reserves, and their amenities and facilities are listed below. You can also locate the parks and reserves using the mapping tools on the city's website.

Booking a park

Some of the city's parks are available to book for events. A park booking is required for groups of more than thirty-five people. Visit the parks bookings page on the city's website for more information about booking a park, including information about which parks can be booked for events and the duration of bookings permitted. To make a booking, download a copy of the parks booking form (PDF, 130KB).

Subiaco

The suburb of Subiaco has eleven parks and reserves, more than any other suburbs in the city. Subiaco has four district parks, two neighbourhood parks and six local parks.
