(g) Do you sell ready-to-eat* food at a different location from where it is prepared? Yes No

* Refer to definitions below.

Process, in relation to food, means activity conducted to prepare food for sale including chopping, cooking, drying, fermenting, heating, pasteurising, or a combination of these activities.

Ready-to-eat food means food that is ordinarily consumed in the same state as that in which it is sold and does not include nuts totally enclosed in the shell or whole fruit and vegetables intended for further processing by the customer.

Shelf-stable means non-perishable food with a shelf life of many months to years.

Small business is a business that employs less than 50 people in the manufacturing sector or which employs less than 10 people in the food service sector.
