

Media release

For immediate release

Date: Wednesday 3 April 2013

New look Local History Awards

The City of Subiaco recently launched its revamped Local History Awards for 2013.

The new award categories honour connections that have enhanced Subiaco's history, through creating, documenting, or sharing the city's unique cultural heritage.

Mayor Heather Henderson said the city was proud of its heritage and valued how the past has contributed to make the City of Subiaco what it is today.

"The new awards honour the Benedictine connection to the City of Subiaco, local Subiaco identities and others who have made a historical contribution to the city," Mayor Henderson said.

"I encourage the community to take the time to research the history behind Subiaco and discover some of the interesting stories the area has to tell."

Entrants can submit work into the following categories:

- Tom Stannage house history
- Sonya Sears photographic memory
- Christobel Bennett personal reminiscence
- Argonauts school
- Dom Serra open topic.

The awards are open to all ages and entrants have the chance to win from a prize pool of almost $3000.

Entries close on Friday 2 September and entry forms are available from Subiaco Museum, Subiaco Library and the city's Administration Centre, or online at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au

The city would like to thank award sponsors Pro Subi and Michael and Wearne Real Estate.

-ends-