

Media release

For immediate release

Date: 22 August 2013

The Tom Dadour Community Centre

Open Day

City of Subiaco residents are invited to come along to a free open day at the Tom Dadour Community Centre, 363 Bagot Road, on 22 August 2013 from 10.30am – 12.30pm.

The Tom Dadour Community Centre gives seniors and young adults with disabilities a place to relax and be themselves, and to take part in activities designed to help learn new skills, enhance wellbeing, promote wellness and to have fun.

This special event will showcase work completed by the talented centre clients, enable guests to meet other residents, service providers and city staff. Guests will be treated to morning tea and enjoy the musical sounds of singer and entertainer, Peter Delecoste.

Subiaco Mayor Heather Henderson said: "This is the first event of this kind to take place in The Tom Dadour Community Centre in several years. We're hoping that the community will come along, see what the centre has to offer and get involved."

Bookings are essential. To book contact the city on 9237 9336, or email tomdadourmailbox@subiaco.wa.gov.au

-ends-