Good vibrations at sunset@subi

Sunday 17 February will see The Sea of Tunes bring Lake Jualbup to life with a tribute to the Beach Boys for the city's sunset@subi concert series.

Covering all the hits, including surfing tunes from the early 60s through to the pop rock classics of the 70s, this seven piece tribute band is made up of musicians from Perth's original music scene.

The Sea of Tunes came together over a love of the Beach Boys and an appreciation of the songwriting genius of Brian Wilson.

Band member Kris Dimitroff said The Sea of Tunes provided the perfect way to enjoy a warm summer's afternoon.

"We are honoured to be invited back to the sunset@subi concerts after the success of last season's performance," Luke said.

Bring a picnic and a blanket or low chairs to Lake Jualbup, corner Excelsior and Evans streets, Shenton Park between 5pm and 7pm and ride the wave of Beach Boys classics with The Sea of Tunes.

The sunset@subi free community concert series covers a mix of themes and genres suitable for all ages. The series runs every Sunday through to 27 February from 5pm to 7pm at various parks and reserves within the City of Subiaco.
