Energy and raw talent hits sunset@subi

Western Australia's own Toby will return to Perth to perform on Sunday 27 January for the city's sunset@subi concert series.

Described as energetic, raw and feisty, Toby's song-writing skills ensure her live performances are a deeply emotional experience.

Toby's voice has the potential to create a musical revolution, and her energetic guitar work is a pleasure to watch on stage.

Toby said she loved performing in her home town, with the beautiful summer afternoons providing an energising environment.

"The sunset@subi concert audiences are always full of life," she said.

Toby is an original reggae, roots artist who spends most of the year touring overseas with her band. She has recently toured throughout Canada, America and Europe. She will be performing a combination of her old favourites and new delights.

Bring a picnic and a blanket or low chairs to Mueller Park, corner Subiaco and Coghlan roads, Subiaco between 5pm and 7pm and be moved by Toby.

The sunset@subi free community concert series covers a mix of themes and genres suitable for all ages. The series runs every Sunday through to 27 February from 5pm to 7pm at various parks and reserves within the City of Subiaco.
