LIGTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

To celebrate the 80th anniversary of the opening of the Regal Theatre in 1938, Subiaco Museum proudly presents Cinema Subiaco: 1904–1954, a new exhibition that celebrates cinema culture in our city.

Subiaco has been home to several picture gardens, from Subiaco Oval to Shenton Park. Before it was the Regal Theatre, the Coliseum Picture Gardens operated from 1916 to 1938. Avid cinema aficionado and travelling projectionist Paddy Baker bought the Regal Theatre in 1946. Cinema Subiaco: 1904–1954 brings to life the colourful story of Paddy Baker and his important contribution to Subiaco, preserving the Regal Theatre for generations to come. Visit the exhibition at Subiaco Museum and discover an intimate history of cinema culture, an original projector owned by Paddy Baker and vintage movie posters.

Subiaco Museum is located at 239 Rokeby Road, Subiaco, and is open Tuesday to Friday from 1pm to 4pm and Saturdays from 10am to 2pm. For more information, visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/museum

HOMELESSNESS AND BEGGING WITHIN SUBIACO
As the winter months set in, people are asking the city what they can do to help vulnerable community members who are sleeping rough in Subiaco. The city is working with The Salvation Army and local police in relation to begging and homelessness within our community.
What can I do?
Please do not donate directly to beggars or people asking for donations (food, cash or other items). Instead, donate with The Salvation Army and local police in relation to begging and homelessness within our community.
