Photographic Award winners announced!

On Monday 26 August, the City of Subiaco celebrated the exceptional talent of local photographers at the 2024 Photographic Awards ceremony, held at the Subiaco Library.

The overall winner of the awards was Lal Perera for his piece Nick Cave. Cole Baxter won the Open Category for Moorditj Maaman; Blair Johnson, the Subiaco Category for Green Light; Richard Goodwin, the Mobile Category for Here Dog and Him; Imogen Teh, the Kids Category for City Night; Irina Santos, the AI Category for Connecting People and Desert; Paul Harrison, the Resident Category for New Post; and Sophie Coffey, the Youth Category for Sunset Reflections.

Mayor David McMullen acknowledged the incredible accomplishments of the winners.

"The City of Subiaco's Photographic Awards have once again showcased the impressive talent and creativity within our community," he said.

The exhibition of 92 finalist photographs is on display at the Subiaco Library until Sunday 8 September. Visitors can view the exhibition and vote for the People's Choice Award, which will be announced after the exhibition ends. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

City partners with Switch Your Thinking

The City of Subiaco has partnered with Switch Your Thinking to enhance climate action and sustainability efforts. This partnership, inspired by community interest in the City's Sustainable Sundowner event, will offer residents and local businesses workshops, discounts on eco-friendly products and services, and further support for sustainable development under the City's LPP 1.3 policy.

Daglish Local Heritage Survey endorsed

At the August Council meeting, Council endorsed the Daglish Precinct Local Heritage Survey. The survey, which was reviewed with input from local residents and heritage experts, assessed specific places and properties in Daglish to record their cultural heritage significance and produce a key cultural and historical record for the City. This record will be publicly available on the City's website and a copy will be available at the Subiaco Library.

Street lighting upgrades

The City is enhancing sustainability and safety with a street lighting upgrade. At this week's Council Meeting, Elected Members approved a tender to replace fluorescent lamps with energy-efficient LEDs on 17 streets across Subiaco, Daglish and Shenton Park. This upgrade supports community safety, reduces costs and aligns with the City's sustainability goals, including cutting greenhouse gas emissions.

Green light for Rosalie Park pump track construction

The City's Rosalie Park Reserve pump track has received the green light following a two-stage community consultation. Located in the north-east corner of Rosalie Park Reserve, the track will integrate with the natural bowl-shaped terrain, preserving mature trees and minimising excavation. Construction is set to finish by the end of 2024.
