Lords Recreation Centre July school holiday program

Discover fun, fitness and friendship at Lords Recreation Centre these July school holidays.

Designed for children aged 6 to 11, the program offers a variety of exciting activities led by experienced leaders who focus on learning and maximising fun.

These holidays, kids can enjoy an incursion from Bricks4Kidz, along with Olympic games, a scavenger hunt, pool party and more.

Programs run daily from 9am to 3pm and are a great way for your little ones to make new friends and learn new skills. Remember to pack swim gear, morning tea and lunch, and wear closed-in shoes each day.

Visit the www.lords.com.au to enrol or call our friendly team on 6229 6600.

Craig Silvey writing award opens

Sharpen your pencil and charge up your laptop! Entries for the prestigious 2024 Craig Silvey Award for Young Writers open on Friday 19 July. Aspiring young writers are encouraged to start planning – or plotting – their entry. Open to all Western Australian school students from years one to twelve, with multiple age categories and a special award for the overall standout story. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/awards.

New Stitches Club at Subiaco Library

Starting Saturday 29 June, join us for the Subi Stitches Club at Subiaco Library. Meet every six weeks on Saturday afternoons for a fun stitch and chat while enjoying a cuppa. Bring your own project or use our materials. Library Officer and embroiderer Michelle will be there to share tips and tricks. All skill levels welcome. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

Last chance to enter the 2024 Photographic Awards

Calling all photography enthusiasts! The City of Subiaco invites you to participate in our 2024 Photographic Awards. With over $5000 in cash prizes, this competition is open to all skill levels aged six and up in the Perth metro area. Categories include Subiaco, Open, Mobile Phone and a new AI Category. Entries close on Sunday 23 June. Don't miss out! Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/photography.

Subiaco Library and Barking Gecko Theatre team up for Storytime

Starting this month, join Subiaco Library's Storytime on the last Friday of each month at 10.30am for a special collaboration with Barking Gecko Theatre. Led by Artistic Director Sam Longley, these interactive sessions are an engaging and fun way to foster a love of reading in children. Visit our events page at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

Annual laneway pruning

Each July, the City prunes or removes vegetation in laneways to ensure safe clearances around fences and eliminate dead plants. Residents can opt out of the laneway pruning program by submitting a general enquiry on our website. Those who opt out must maintain vegetation according to City guidelines, which are available on the City's website.

Council endorses Park Street Heritage Area

At its meeting on Tuesday 28 May, Council endorsed the designation of the Park Street Heritage Area, along with the associated Local Planning Policy 3.15 – Park Street Heritage Area. This decision follows a comprehensive consultation period and careful consideration of community feedback and heritage assessments. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Buy local at Forrest Walk

While Forrest Walk undergoes a makeover, the businesses along this walkway remain open and are trading as normal. From Pilates and beauty treatments to antiques and pasta, there are plenty of reasons to visit. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/major-projects.
