Subiaco's weekly night market returns!

Every Saturday night starting 7 September

The Subi Night Market presented by See Subiaco is back this summer, bringing the charm of a European summer to Subiaco. From Saturday 7 September 2024 to Saturday 12 April 2025 (except Saturday 19 October) Market Square will transform into a vibrant destination for food lovers and cultural enthusiasts every week.

Inspired by the village squares of Italy and southern France, this summer's market promises a sensory feast with over 40 international cuisines, artisanal crafts and surprise performances.

Enjoy everything from gooey raclette and birria tacos to unique handcrafted items, all in a picturesque park setting.

Supported by See Subiaco, a City of Subiaco initiative, this market is set to be the ultimate weekend destination. Don't miss out - immerse yourself in the sights, sounds and tastes of Europe right here in Subiaco.

Minute with the MAYOR

A quick monthly update from Mayor David McMullen

I was pleased and grateful to have been nominated for, and awarded, a Merit Award at the recent WA Local Government Association (WALGA) Local Government Awards 2024.

The award recognises 'notable contributions to WALGA, Local Government and/or the Local Government sector'. These types of awards and accolades are encouraging recognition; and more broadly reflect upon the well-oiled fashion in which our Council and staff are currently functioning.

When local government does good things, it is the community who benefit.

Heritage victory in DAP decision

This week, the Metro Inner-North Joint Development Assessment Panel refused an application which, if approved, would have resulted in demolition of heritage buildings on Hay Street.

Mayor David McMullen said, "Our planning framework can generously accommodate a renewal of this site, and we wish for this potential to be realised. All the developer needed to do was follow the planning framework and preserve the heritage of these buildings."
