Winners announced for the 2024 Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists

The City of Subiaco has announced the winners of the prestigious 2024 Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists.

Michael Evans from Eaton Community College won first place in the Upper Secondary category with his piece Overlooked Railroad. Maisie Kidd from Applecross Senior High School won the Lower Secondary category with her artwork Eureka.

The winners from the Primary aged categories were Shiwen Shao from Perth Art School for Ray is an Australian Silky Terrier Puppy, Dylan Corke from Churchlands Primary School for Symbiotic Portal Wars and Hazel Tam from Brentwood Primary School for Wondrous.

Mayor David McMullen, who spoke at the awards presentation, highlighted the City's longstanding commitment to nurturing the next generation of artists in his speech.

"The City of Subiaco has hosted these awards for twenty-two years now and it's truly inspirational to see the talent of students from across WA featured in our exhibition and celebrated at these awards," he said.

Homelessness Week 2024

To recognise Homelessness Week, from Monday 5 August to Sunday 11 August, the City of Subiaco has organised several events for people sleeping rough. From a community dinner and lunch to free laundry services and hygiene packs, this year's activities aim to provide much-needed relief and support directly to those in need. Find out more at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Olive Cheng mural workshop

Perth local artist Olive Cheng recently ran a creative workshop with students from Rosalie Primary School to help design a public art mural. The mural, fondly named 'Child's Play', will adorn the concrete parkour elements and climbing walls within the second stage of the Rosalie Park Mixed User Space. Painting is set to begin in the coming weeks. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Library reopening

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Evelyn H. Parker Library, and the completion of the external restoration of the building, the City hosted a special celebration. The night featured a light installation and live entertainment, a special short documentary and a mini exhibit of the building. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Children's Book Week

Subiaco Library is celebrating Children's Book Week with a full schedule of events for school students from 17 to 23 August. A special month-long interactive display will also be on show for all ages to investigate. During this time, Baby Rhymetime will run once a week on Wednesdays and Storytime will run on Fridays only. Be sure to dress up as your favourite book character for a special Storytime on Friday 30 August. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au.

National Tree Day community planting event

Join us at Cliff Sadlier Memorial Park (northern side of the park) between 9am to 11am on Sunday 4 August and help plant 1700 native plants in the living stream. Stay for as long as you want and help improve biodiversity at your local park with your neighbours. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Community Development Grants boost mental health projects

The City awarded over $10,000 in Community Development Grants to three innovative mental health projects. Alzheimer's WA received $4000 for a memory café in Subiaco, Subiaco Women's Shed got $4000 in seed funding and Deserving Better WA received $2,500 for a six-month project addressing violence. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au.

First half of Forrest Walk complete

The first half of the Forrest Walk Public Realm Upgrade is now open to the public. Enhancements include repaving, upgraded drainage and the installation of the first concrete seating plinth with artwork by Jahne Rees. Businesses in this area are still accessible and everyone is encouraged to visit. The remaining construction will be completed by September 2024. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au.

Subi Streets project

At the July Ordinary Council Meeting, Councillors endorsed the Subi Streets project. This project aims to create a movement and place framework and design guidelines for all streets and laneways in the City, with input from the community. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au.

Bulk Hard Waste collection

The next Bulk Hard Waste collection will begin on Monday 5 August 2024. Please place items on the verge by 7am. Mattresses will be collected separately. Please don't place any items in laneways. Visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au.
