NO MORE BLANK WALLS Subi

- 1 Flaming Galahs, Curtis Hylton | Barker Road Car Park
Celebrating Australia's often-overlooked native birds, this mural features vibrant flora and fauna, and invites viewers to reconnect with the beauty and wonder of the natural world around them.
- 2 Whimsy on Walmsley, Graeme Miles Richards | Walmsley Lane
A continuation of Graeme's series of paintings featuring "random floating things", this playful mural creates a whimsical narrative that encourages curiosity, reflection, and the joy of finding meaning in randomness.
- 3 Still-life with Pears, Danby | Xanthis Lane
Blend of realism and local history, this mural references 1950s Subiaco ceramics from The Wembley Ware Society. A still-life that transforms everyday objects into a story of pride, place, and identity.
- 4 Space of Peace, Wild Drawing | 36 Rowland Road
In a time of global unrest, this piece is a call for true peace—not just the absence of war, but the absence of its causes. A reflective, powerful mural that urges empathy and global consciousness.
- 5 Studio Window 3, Fintan Magee | 20 Rowland Street
Blurring realism and abstraction, Magee draws from personal memories and family artefacts to reflect on home, isolation, and the narratives hidden within everyday objects viewed through glass.
- 6 Unexpected Journey, Dan Bianco | Hiddlestone Lane
Honouring Subiaco's 1924 train station, this mural blends nostalgia with curiosity. A startled driver and historic symbols invite viewers to imagine the untold story unfolding on the tracks.
- 7 Always, Bec Abdy | 8 Alvan Street
This symbolic work explores the balance between the outer world and inner self. It's a visual meditation on soul, growth, and finding clarity through stillness in an ever-demanding world.
- 8 Take Time, HWJ | Vibe Hotel
HWJ's Perth debut invites viewers to pause and be present. The phrase "Take Time" painted on the hotel's façade, offers a moment of calm and reflection for guests and visitors alike.
- 9 Checkers, Sofles | Sagar Lane
Sofles fuses Southeast Asian influences with bold colour and energy. This vibrant mural celebrates culture, spontaneity, and the power of public art in transforming urban spaces.
- 10 Moments That Make Us, Tessa Dorotich | Hiddlestone Lane
This mural captures a child's sense of awe and wonder. With floral lamps referencing Subiaco's Art Deco era, it showcases the magic in the mundane and celebrates community legacy.
- 11 Tender Time, Miser | 30 Townsend Rd
Inspired by personal loss, this mural traces life's journey through the image of a willie wagtail. Growing from chick to adult, it reflects memory, healing, and the passage of time.
