Subi Blooms x Gather 2026 to feature global floral powerhouses

Bryce Heyworth, founder and creative director of September Studio, is heading to Subiaco as part of the vibrant lineup of the 2026 Subi Blooms x Gather festival, taking place this Mother's Day weekend from Friday 8 May to Sunday 10 May.

The Sydney-based florist, with an audience of more than 1.6 million Instagram followers, will team up with Perth florists Fox & Rabbit to create a showstopping installation or this year's event.

Heyworth joins an exceptional program of local, national, and internationally acclaimed floral talent at this year's festival, which is set to feature more than 15 floral installations bursting to life through Subiaco's town centre.

This year's festival has a 'Floral Aurora' theme, which will see Subiaco transformed into a luminous floral wonderland.

A never-before-seen blooms-by-night experience, thanks to Lotterywest and Festoon, will debut at the festival after dark, so all of the installations can be enjoyed into the evening.

City of Subiaco Mayor David McMullen said the festival's continued growth reflects its rising profile as one of the state's most loved cultural events.

"The Subi Blooms x Gather festival has become a highlight on the City's events calendar, bringing tens of thousands of visitors to Subiaco to celebrate the creativity and colour of floral artistry throughout our iconic town centre," he said.

Subi Blooms is presented by See Subiaco, a City of Subiaco initiative. For more, visit www.seesubiaco.com.au/subiblooms.

Minute with the MAYOR

A quick monthly update from Mayor David McMullen

We were pleased to welcome the Chamber of Commerce and Industry WA to Subi recently, for a CCIWA member event.

More than just a chance for us to showcase our City as a backdrop for business networking, the event continues our ongoing efforts to attract and retain key industries as part of a thriving economy.

As this goes to print, I hope by now everyone in the community has had a great Easter; and families are enjoying the school holidays.

New partnership to improve mental health

The Subiaco Community Mental Health Service and Lords Recreation Centre have started a new partnership to encourage carers and participants in mental health groups to build healthy routines and reduce social isolation.

The partnership aims to highlight the benefits of community-based, preventative mental health care, and to work together to remove barriers to exercise.

Former Police Commissioner to visit library

A community safety talk with Dr Karl O'Callaghan, former Commissioner of Police for Western Australia, will be held at Subiaco Library on Friday 24 April from 6pm to 7.30pm.

During the session, Karl will share insights from his extensive career in law enforcement, including practical perspectives on community safety and the role individuals and communities can play in creating safer, more connected neighbourhoods.

Reserve your spot at this free session via www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

ANZAC Day in Subiaco

On 25 April each year, the Subiaco-Shenton Park sub-branch of the RSL hosts an ANZAC Day Procession and Service, supported by the City of Subiaco, to remember all Australian service men and women.

The procession sets off from the Shenton Park Community Centre at 7am, and concludes at the Fallen Soldiers Memorial at 8am where a special service will be held. For more information about both events, visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

Supercars are back in Subi

Classic Cars & Coffee is bringing Supercar Sunday back to Subiaco on Saturday 19 April, with more than 120 supercars and hypercars set to take over Market Square Park for one of the City's most popular motoring events.

From 9am, visitors can view the impressive line-up of cars up close, before the cars depart in a slow-moving convoy along Rokeby Road from 10.30am.
