Globally renowned artist to light up Subi Blooms

The City's award-winning floral festival, Subi Blooms x Gather is set to reach new heights in 2026 when acclaimed artist Matthew Aberline brings his installation, 'The Light Within', to Market Square Park.

The installation features a colourful landscape of giant, inflatable, floral-patterned lanterns which illuminate at night. This will be its debut in Western Australia, following appearances at Singapore's iLight Festival and China's Glow Festival.

Returning with its boldest program yet, Subi Blooms x Gather will once again transform Subiaco into a vibrant destination of large-scale floral artistry across the Mother's Day weekend, from Friday 8 May to Sunday 10 May.

The theme of this year's festival is 'Floral Aurora'; an artistic representation of light that invites artists to play with shadow, illumination, and light.

Inspired by this year's theme, the festival will expand beyond its traditional daytime format, extending into the evening with select installations illuminated at night.

Mayor David McMullen said, "Subi Blooms is an annual highlight for tens of thousands of visitors each year, and Matthew Aberline's installation will bring a brand-new floral spectacle to the 2026 program.

"The festival is a celebration of art, nature, and community, and this year, we're inviting everyone to come and experience Subiaco in a whole new light."

Civic Precinct engagement results now available

Community engagement results for the proposed new civic building and gardens have been published on the City's website via a consultation report, prepared by an external agency.

More than 1,000 pieces of individual feedback were received, with key themes including green space, project cost and appreciation for the gardens. Read the full consultation report at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.

Lasers at the library

WA Youth Week is right around the corner – and this year, the City is celebrating with an outdoor movie night at the Subi Night Market, and two sessions of laser tag at Subiaco Library!

The City's Youth Week events are free, and perfect for young people aged 10 to 25. See all events and sign up at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

Library restoration wins big

The Subiaco Library restoration project took out a state-wide award at the Institute of Public Works Engineering Awards earlier this month.

The project showcased innovative approaches in heritage conservation, service continuity (through the set-up of a pop-up library just next door to the building during construction), and asset management.

Calling young artists

The City's prestigious Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists is returning for its 24th year, with entries set to open on Friday 24 April.

Budding artists from years one to twelve across Western Australia are invited to enter a unique piece of two-dimensional art into the award, which is judged by a panel that includes the award's patron, the award-winning illustrator and artist Shaun Tan.

Celebrating Wandana

Last week, the Wandana Social Housing Complex celebrated its 70th anniversary with an event that included a live mural painting, pop-up museum, entertainment, and a jukebox music party.

Mayor David McMullen said, "The City is proud to continue our support of the Wandana Community Association, and to celebrate 70 years of community, care, and connection right here in Subiaco."

Rowland Street carpark upgrades

The Rowland Street carpark is set to be upgraded, in phases, to improve safety, accessibility, and day-to-day usability.

The upgrades are expected to take six to eight weeks, and will start from Tuesday 7 April. Works will be completed in stages to ensure minimal disruption to the carpark. Read more via www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news.
