

Get in the spirit

Subiaco's streets and laneways will come alive on Saturday 29 April as a line-up of amazing venues plays host to a handpicked selection of Australia's finest distilleries for the Good Spirits Stroll. This premium spirit-tasting experience partners Subiaco venues with award-winning distilleries.

How does it work? Simply decide which venue you'd like to start from and you're off! Choose your own adventure as you and your friends visit our bars to enjoy a range of tastings from the best distilleries Australia has to offer.

The Good Spirits Stroll promises ticket holders a fun and unique self-guided experience that you won't want to miss! To find out more and to buy tickets, visit seesubiaco.com.au.

8.15am – Service at Subiaco Fallen Soldiers' Memorial, followed by morning tea at Subiaco Library.

Please note road closures will be in place. For more information, visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/events.

Free gardening workshop

Calling all horticulturalists and eco-warriors! Join Peg Davies, co-founder of Earthwise, for a free workshop on worm farming and compost making. You will learn how to turn your food scraps and yard waste into nutrient-rich soil for your gardens. This free event will take place from 9am on Friday 14 April at Earthwise Community Association, 315 Bagot Road. Bookings are essential.

Window gallery pops up

Walmsley Lane off Rokeby Road has been given a vibrant makeover, with six stunning art pieces added to one of its walls.

'Walmsley Windows' is an outdoor gallery project that showcases local artists through a series of 'windows'. Within each frame you'll find a beautifully unique piece of art; be it a tea cup overflowing or a sunset over the Italian Cinque Terre.

Be sure to include a visit to this new, public artwork when you're out and about exploring Subiaco's great shops, cafés, bars and restaurants this Easter weekend.

Lords school holiday fun

Lords Recreation Centre wants to make the holidays as fun as possible for you and your little one. Lords has extended hours of care from 8.30am to 4pm across all program days.

There will be exciting guests from WestOz Wildlife, science experiments, and creative 'make your owns'. Each day involves pool games conducted by qualified staff, and teamwork and sport games on the sport courts.

For more, visit www.lords.com.au.

Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists opens soon

The City is seeking budding artists to take part in its youth art award. Western Australian school students in years one to twelve are invited to submit an original, two-dimensional visual art creation. Entries will be judged on technique, originality of concept and choice of materials. Entries for the 2023 Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists open on Friday 28 April.
