

SUBIACO Scene

sunset@subi

The City of Subiaco's free sunset@subi concert series is back to help you make the most of warm summer evenings at three outdoor venues across the City.

This year's six-concert program kicks off with a Christmas concert at Lake Jualbup this Sunday, 17 December. The series will resume in the new year with acts including a tribute to The Seekers, some high-octane New Orleans-style brass, and The Australian Blues Brothers.

Concerts run from 6pm to 8pm, with an Auslan interpreter on stage at all performances.

City of Subiaco Mayor David McMullen said, "Bring a picnic blanket, your family and friends, something to eat and something to drink; you will have a fantastic evening under the setting sun with some talented musicians, in some of our best outdoor locations."

Minute with the Mayor

A quick monthly update from Mayor David McMullen

Behind the scenes, shooting a very Subiaco Christmas video. Look for it on Facebook.

With formal meetings over, it is time for Council to recharge before doing it all again in 2024. My thanks to Councillors and staff – and you, our community – as a great year comes to a close.

See you at the Subi Night Market, or the Subiaco Twilight Trail, or the sunset@subi concert series (which I'm looking forward to launching) this summer.

Merry Christmas and a happy new year.

Christmas in the City of Subiaco

There's Christmas fun for the whole family, whether you're picking up unique gifts, lunching with the work crew to celebrate a year well done, writing letters to Santa, or grabbing a festive cocktail.

Head to Subiaco Pop-up Library to post your Santa letters and get a response from the North Pole every Tuesday (final delivery 22 December). The library will also be running daily drop-in Christmas activities for the kids from Monday 18 to Friday 22 December.

Explore the six large-scale light installations which make up the Subiaco Twilight Trail, and family-friendly Merry Moments are back on Saturday 23 December from 10am to 1pm at Postal Walk.

The Christmas Cocktail Trail is on across a number of great local venues with limited edition concoctions on offer until 31 December.

Annual Electors Meeting held

The City of Subiaco recently held its Annual Electors Meeting with Mayor David McMullen thanking community members for attending what was a very short and efficient meeting.

The Annual Report and Audited Financial Statements for the 2022-23 financial year were carried by all in attendance.

You can view the 2022-23 Annual Report on the City's website.

Council recommends Sanur DA be refused

The City will recommend that the Metro Inner-North Joint Development Assessment Panel (JDAP) refuse a development application at 424-428 and 440 Hay Street in its Responsible Authority Report.

It comes after a staff recommendation for refusal was unanimously endorsed by Elected Members at this week's Ordinary Council Meeting.

The City received a Development Assessment Panel application for the properties in September proposing the demolition of the existing buildings – which have heritage value – and construction of replica buildings.

The development application is inconsistent with the City's Local Planning Scheme No. 5.

The matter will now go to JDAP for a decision.
