

SUBIACO Scene

A message from Mayor Penny Taylor

Thank you to all for doing the right thing and helping keep our community safe.

Now, with COVID restrictions partially eased, it's a great time to support our local businesses. I encourage you to shop in Subiaco, Shenton Park, Jolimont and Daglish and use local services where possible, or head out to one of our many great cafes and restaurants.

When local businesses are thriving, our whole community benefits and with Mother's Day fast approaching, there's never been a better time to explore what Subiaco has to offer.

The lockdown was a reminder that things can change quickly and there's no room for complacency. Please continue to check-in on the Safe WA app when you're out and about, and please get tested and stay home if you have any symptoms.

Scribblers Festival is coming to Subiaco

Scribblers Festival is set to take over Subiaco when it takes up residence in its new home – Subiaco Arts Centre.

Proudly supported by the City, Scribblers Festival is FORM's popular annual festival of literature and arts for young people which celebrates the magic of storytelling.

Join the hunt to find Lego minifigs hidden in various buildings in the heart of Subiaco from 24 May to 20 June, or come along to the big family weekend of fun at the arts centre on Saturday and Sunday 29 and 30 May.

Find out more at www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/news or www.scribblersfestival.com.au.

Verge valet proposed

Would you like to move to a personalised bulk verge collection service in lieu of the annual mass bulk verge collections?

Verge valet is not a skip bin service; residents simply set their bulk waste out on the verge as normal, but they get to choose the date it gets picked up.

As well as being a more flexible service, verge valet will help improve the appearance of streets, reduce illegal dumping, and means each collection gets sorted for recyclables.

Consultation closes 4pm Monday 17 May. Visit www.haveyoursay.subiaco.wa.gov.au.

What makes our community so special

The City proudly celebrated Neighbour Day this year by asking the community to share their stories of what makes Subiaco a special place to live.

Thank you to everyone who submitted a story – it was inspiring to see how locals help one another and love creating connections with their neighbours.

One story, in particular, demonstrated tremendous community spirit: "we help each other, for example, when my neighbour broke her hip, I helped her taking her dogs Coco and Digbo for a walk in the park – that made me happy".

We really do live in a special pocket of Perth.

Oval and Railway Precinct Design Guidelines open for comment

DevelopmentWA is inviting comment on the draft Subiaco Oval and Railway Precinct Design Guidelines.

The land to which the draft guidelines apply is generally bounded by Roberts Road, Thomas Street, the Fremantle Rail line and Haydn Bunton Drive, excluding Perth Modern School.

The proposed guidelines can be viewed at www.developmentwa.com.au. Comments should be received by Thursday 10 June.

City seeks budding artists as prestigious award returns

The City is seeking budding artists to take part in its annual Shaun Tan Award for Young Artists, marking eighteen years of this respected award for young creatives.

With Perth-born artist and internationally-acclaimed Shaun Tan as its patron, the award encourages imagination and creativity in young people.

Subiaco Mayor Penny Taylor said the City was lucky to host and support such a prestigious award and everyone was thrilled to welcome it back after it was postponed in 2020 due to the pandemic.

"I'm consistently impressed by the entries of students from across the state each year and I can't wait to see the submissions this year," she said.

"I encourage students from all over WA to enter – we love seeing what you have to offer."

Entries close 5.30pm Monday 24 May. For more, visit www.subiaco.wa.gov.au/ShawnTanAward.
