

Subiaco Museum

View the Museum's rotating exhibitions and diverse collection of art and heritage items. We are located between Subiaco Library and the City of Subiaco Administration Centre on Rokeby Road. Please check the website for opening hours.

The See Subi on Sunday walks work on the same basis as a group of friends walking together, who invite others to join them. Everyone taking part in any of the walks does so at their own risk.

Event cancellation: Walks go ahead rain or shine but will be cancelled in the event of thunderstorms or hail.

Photographs in this brochure

- Walk one – St Andrew's Church renovations circa 1965*
- Walk two – Nicholson Road looking west circa 1910*
- Walk three – EH Parker's Mayoral portrait*
- Walk four – Rokeby Road circa 1940*
- Walk five – Subiaco Historical Society Museum 1975*
- Walk six – Princess Margaret Hospital under construction 1909*

Photographs sourced from Subiaco Museum's photographic collection.

See Subi on Sunday is a voluntary community initiative supported by the City of Subiaco.

For further information, contact Subiaco Museum on 9237 9351 or visit the City of Subiaco website.

www.subiaco.wa.gov.au

 facebook.com/cityofsubi

This publication is printed on 100 per cent recycled paper.

This flyer is available electronically on the City's website, and can be provided in alternative formats upon request.

See Subi on Sunday

Buxton Pharmacy, 183 Rokeby Road, 1912

2022–2023 free guided walks exploring the history and environment of Subiaco.

See Subi on Sunday offers the community free guided walks through Subiaco that allow participants to enjoy its history, heritage and beauty.

The intention of the walks is to encourage participation and pleasure.

The walks take approximately one and a half hours to complete and are suitable for people of all ages. Walks are conducted in a relaxed, friendly and informative manner.

Community members with past and present connections to the areas visited are invited to provide personal anecdotes that enhance the appreciation of the location explored during each walk.

Mayor E H Parker Opening the Shenton Park Child Centre on 13 March 1975

See Subi on Sunday 2022–2023

1

Twenty-first Anniversary Walk

Subiaco and St Andrews Church
Sunday 10 July 2022
at 1.30pm

Opened in 1906, St

Andrew's Anglican Church is a place of significance for Subiaco. Come and hear the pipe organ, a bequest from a parishioner and one of the best in Australia, learn about the history of the church, its leadlight windows and original pulpit which are features of this walk.

Join us for an Anzac biscuit and "billy tea" at completion of the walk.

Start and finish Regal Theatre, corner Rokeby Road and Hay Street, Subiaco.

2

Neat Nicholson
Sunday 11
September 2022
at 1.30pm

An opportunity to learn about a variety of historically significant spots in Nicholson Road, such as corner stores, churches, convent, hotel, and lying-in homes, which have contributed to the fascinating Subiaco story.

Start and finish Palms Community Centre, Carpark off Rokeby Road, Subiaco.

3

Leading Ladies
Sunday 13 November
2022 at 1.30pm

Visit a number of significant buildings around the City acknowledging Subiaco women who have been leaders at federal, state and local levels. Be inspired by their contributions and stories.

Start and finish Subiaco Museum, Rokeby Road, Subiaco.

4

Retro Retail on Rokeby
Sunday 8
January 2023
at 1.30pm

Rokeby Road set down in George Rotton's map of Suburban Allotments near the City of Perth, released in 1883, has an interesting heritage and vivid history to tell. Subiaco was proclaimed a municipality in 1897. Recollections and stories of previous retail stores and experiences will be features of this walk.

Start and finish Subiaco Museum, Rokeby Road, Subiaco.

5

Museum Memories
Sunday 12 March
2023 at 1.30pm

Learn about the interesting 100 year history of the Subiaco Museum building and the important and varied roles it has played and continues to play in Subiaco and the lives of its residents.

Start and finish Subiaco Museum, Rokeby Road, Subiaco.

6

Establishing the Eastern End

Sunday 14
May 2023
at 1.30pm

The end of Princess Margaret Hospital marks the beginning of the area to be known as Subi East. Interesting heritage and history abound in the area around this new development. Hear about developments past and present. Bring a picnic to enjoy in beautiful Mueller Park with Mum and/or friends before or after the walk.

Start and finish car park corner Subiaco Road and Hamilton Street, Subiaco.